Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Muslims have always believed in the Prophethood of Jesus - or Isa - (peace be upon him). Islam is the only religion (other than Christianity) that recognizes Jesus and makes it compulsory upon its adherents to believe in him. The Qur n is replete with anecdotes about the life and teachings of Jesus. I commend Dave Andrews for writing these wonderful reflections about Jesus to enhance the interconnectedness between Muslims and Christians in a time of hostility. His work is a testimony to his genuine desire to bring people of different faith persuasions together, to discuss Jesus in a respectful manner. I ask God Almighty to bless this honourable treatise and grant success to its author in bringing people together in a way that can enhance our humanity. Mohamad Abdalla Mohamad Abdalla is regarded as one of Australia s most respected Muslim leaders. He is Founding Director of the Griffith Islamic Research Unit and the Director (QLD Node) of National Centre of Excellence for Islamic Studies Australia As a leading community development practitioner, Dave Andrews has enjoyed the friendship of people from various religious traditions . and has sought to find common ground with his Muslim friends. In this reflective reader he has sought to bring about a respectful listening regarding the Messiah from the New Testament tradition and that of the Muslim faith. This is the song of a God for all and close to all: a God in whom we have our very being . who draws close and nurtures us . in the Stranger from Galilee. Charles Ringma Charles Ringma is a world-renowned Brisbane-based theologian who has served in Asia, Canada and Australia....
