Dread - The Art of Serial Killing (Paperback)

By Mark Ramsden

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mr Madden, Dickens enthusiast, muses with his beautiful and bohemian prisoner on possible endings to the famous author s unfinished final mystery. She is captivating and captive, but more interested in his background than spilling her own. Mr Madden, spy, infiltrates a far right nationalist group in order to set up the thugs for something far more serious than their usual boozy street fights. But he s not the only one interested in their work. Mr Madden, serial killer, sculpts his Candidates into bizarre and macabre artworks within the bare walls of his dungeon workshop. And if he is to keep one step ahead of the police, the secret service and his own gory instincts, Mr Madden is going to have to answer the one question that hangs over all our heads: What would Charles Dickens do? A laugh out loud, erudite, sly, blood-and-gore-soaked evisceration of an England we would prefer to pretend does not exist, with a series of cut-throat observations and knock-out one-liners that would make even the best political satirist weep with envy. A set...
