Excerpt: . . . 11 ment procurement, services, electronic commerce, and advancing shared values such as transparency and the participation of civil society. At the same time, we are enforcing strictly European com-pliance with dispute settlement decisions, such as those on ba-nanas and beef, and we will address problems in our trade rela-tions both bilaterally and through the new negotiating round that the President has proposed. In Africa, we are implementing the Presidents initiative to im-prove trade relations and ensure Africas full integration into the multilateral system. For the past 5 years, Mr. Chairman, it is the Ways and Means Committee that has led the effort to develop a more effective Africa trade policy for the next century. And let me applaud you, Mr. Chairman, Congressman Rangel, and Mr. McDermott, as sponsors of the Africa Growth and Opportunity Act, in particular, and thank the entire Subcommittee for your decision to markup a...
