Hill (Late a Representative From Connecticut): Memorial Addresses Delivered in the House of Representatives of the United States, Sixty-Fifth Congress, Second Session Proceedings in the House of Representatives Thursday, September 27, 1917. The House met at 12 o clock noon. The Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, D. D., offered the following prayer: Our Father in Heaven, in whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning, constant in Thy ministrations, upholding, sustaining, guiding those who wait upon Thee, we thank Thee for past blessings and most earnestly pray that we may lean with greater confidence upon Thee, that as individuals and as a Nation we may march onward and upward in righteousness, truth, and justice. Once more in the dispensation of Thy providence we are called upon to mourn the loss of a Member of this House. Wise in his counsels, firm in his convictions, pure in his motives, he leaves behind him a worthy record. Comfort, we beseech Thee, his colleagues, friends, and the bereaved family with the promises of the Gospel. We...

Totally one of the better pdf I have at any time read through. It really is simplified but shocks within the 50 % from the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
