Caterina watches the activity on the 15th-century terrace. It is less than two years since she left the USA and followed her roots to the Italian homeland. Her daughter recently joined her on what started as a solo journey. Both of their lives will soon change forever; this incident is only the beginning. Truth trumps fiction when this true story unfolds Mafia connections, a threatened deportation, International intrigue, a wedding and a birth. One century after her grandparents emigration from Italy she completes a full circle to find her roots. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
