

God Rescues His People: Birth of a Nation According to Exodus (Paperback)

By Peter Russell-Yarde, MR Peter Russell-Yarde

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From Israel's suffering in Egypt to its miraculous release from slavery because of the plagues suffered by the Egyptians, from the first Passover which saved the Israelite first-born to the dramatic crossing of the Red Sea and the supply of food and water throughout their rebellious journey in the wilderness of the Sinai, the book of Exodus provides the believer with a front row seat of a time when God demonstrated His great power over powerful human forces to achieve His plan for His chosen people. Exodus is full of the testimony of those prepared, however reluctantly, to serve God and to be used of Him to do works of incredible daring against the most improbable odds. This book makes the account of the exodus of Israel from Egypt come alive, and identifies the lessons painfully learned by the people at that time that can be of great benefit to people living today, emphasizing as it does the power of God to rescue those overpowered with grief and suffering from the oppressive and powerful forces within the...
