The Double charts the psychological collapse of Yakov Golyadkin, an awkward, angst-ridden office-worker in St Petersburg. Disturbingly, no one but Golyadkin seems aware of this startling state of affairs, further straining the troubled bureaucrats tenuous hold on sanity. But is the Double real, or is it perhaps - as Dostoyevskys brilliantly ambiguous script seems to imply - simply one of the many voices that exist within Golyadkin himself This item ships from multiple locations.
