To the Rumsellers. --You have a license, you say. Yes, you have a license, and that is your plea. I adjure you to keep it, lock it among your jewels, guard it as the apple of your eye; and when you die, and are laid in your coffins, be sure that the precious document is placed. between your cold and clammy fingers, so that, when you are called upon to confront your victims before God, you may be ready to file in your pleas for justification, and boldly lay down your licenses on the bar of the Judge. Yes, my friends, you keep them. You will want your licenses, signed by the County Commissioners and indorsed by the Judge. Every temptation is great or small, according as the man is. ---Jeremy Taylor. Christian work is something more than furnishing food and raiment and shelter. It is also teaching men of God, of Christ, of heaven, of sin, of love, of justice, of brotherhood. When we pray for any virtue, we should cultivate the virtue as well as pray for it; the form of your prayer should be the rule of your life; every petition to God is a precept to man. Look not, therefore, upon your prayers as a short method of duty and salvation only, but as...
