Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The following study provides a description and analysis of the training of enlisted replacements by the Chemical Welfare Service. The first section of the study, confined to the replacement training program from its inception to the end of December 1941, briefly describes the organization and content of the initial program, together with the facilities serving it. The subsequent section, covering the details of the program in operation, is divided into two parts. The first deals with replacement training at Edgewood Arsenal; the second covers this training from the time it was transferred to Camp Sibert, Alabama, to 30 June 1944, the terminal date of this study. The initial training program, the program in operation, development of the program, flow of trainees, and an evaluation are given.
