Outskirts Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 80 pages. Dimensions: 10.8in. x 8.1in. x 0.3in. Of all the social and coping skills programs we've tried, this one is the best. - Mrs. Moran, teacher from Norwood, Ohio. Fun, hands-on experiences that help children: - develop age-appropriate social and coping skills- improve self-esteem and ability to empathize- improve self-control and decision-making- see themselves as a leader in their own lives by making a connection between their decisions in the present and their experiences in the future. Come see what the excitement is all about. The Mr. Emotions and Friends program has had consistent success improving behaviors and decision-making in young children. Included in this book are outlines for 10 workshops that can be expanded or shortened to meet your needs. With the Mr. Emotions and Friends curriculum you and your students can enter a world of colorful and friendly puppet stories, catchy and fun songs, role-playing, discussion, story-telling and crafts that transform important life lessons into memorable playful journeys. This curriculum helps children and educators to begin talking the same language of cooperation (I Use Words That Help), decision-making and self-control (Wait! Stop to Think. I Can Make a Good Choice), self-leadership (I am a Leader), kindness and empathy (Be Kind, We're In the World's Family), and self-worth (I am Important). We have also included tools to document and analyze learning. By using the pre and post questionnaires that we provide, you are able to identify progress empirically. This will allow you to evaluate the areas that have been mastered by your participants and where they need additional help. The Mr. Emotions and Friends workshops were created by the founders of Live It Like You Mean It, LLC in Cincinnati, Ohio. As is the case with all of their workshops, this curriculum includes...
